ChatGPT
In the Bible, angels are described in diverse and sometimes mystical ways. They can appear in human form, as seen when Lot meets two angels in Sodom. Some descriptions are more extraordinary, like in Daniel, where an angel is depicted as a man in linen with a gold belt, or in Ezekiel, where creatures have an appearance like wheels sparkling like topaz. Other passages describe them in awe-inspiring terms, such as resembling a flash of lightning, or as powerful beings with drawn swords. These descriptions suggest angels are not confined to any single form and often surpass human expectations of beauty and form.
